

PUBLIC LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, JULY 26, 1897.

ONE CENT.

World's Largest Circulation
LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notions" for any more than a merchant can lose over his counter from gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Call

upon THE LEDGER for free notices has become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Successors

executions, sales, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc. This notice will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the reasonable rate. This, however.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Leads in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The next morning for two months—42 times—the bill is $42. When he finds it out, there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "full form" notices will be inserted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant to all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

We Must Make Room

In anticipation of a big fall trade, and realizing that goods pertaining to our lines will advance (a great many have already), we bought early and largely. We are already beginning to receive shipments. Moreover it will not be long before our great line of Men's Shoes will come in, so you see we must make room. Now, if you will look in our windows and see the line of Suits we are offering at $10 you will assist us in making room. All of our Fancy Chest Suits in Checks, Flannels, Stripes, etc. Suits that we sold at $12, $15 and $18, go in this sale.

No house in the state ever did or ever will offer a line of Suits like these for the price.

:- $10.00!

It is the greatest sacrifice sale we ever made, but as our patrons will be benefited, and it secures us room and money, we will only be too glad to have you take advantage of this sale. We have no room to quote prices on our more medium grades, but the entire stock will be sold at proportionate prices.

Please bear in mind this: No Suit will be sent out on approval. No Suit will be charged. Only

:- CASH!

Will buy the goods during this sale. Money, however, will be cheerfully returned if goods don't suit upon home examination.

A GENTLEMAN.

He signs that never fail:
His coat was rough and rather worn,
His cheeks were thin and pale—
A lad who had his way to make,
With little time to play;
I knew him for a gentleman
By certain signs today.

He met his mother on the street;
Off came his little cap;
My door was shut; he waited there
Until I heard his rap;
He took the bundle from my hand,
And when I dropped my pen,
He sprang to pick it up for me—
This gentleman of ten.

He does not push and crowd along;
His voice is gently pitched;
He does not fling his books about
As if he were bewitched;
He stands aside to let you pass;
He always shuts the door;
He runs on errands willingly
To fetch and carry and to do;
He thinks of you before himself,
He serves you if he can;
For, in whatever company,
The manners make the man,
At ten or forty, 'tis the same;
The manners tell the tale.
And I discern the gentleman
By signs that never fail.

—Margaret E. Sangster.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The One Held at Bethlehem Church, Ohio, Yesterday a Grand Success.

Yesterday afternoon at Bethlehem Church, (Slickaway,) two miles from Aberdeen, the Township Sunday-school Convention was held. Notwithstanding the threatening condition of the weather about 500 citizens turned out to enjoy the exercises.

President C. W. Gardner of Aberdeen is a hustling officer, performing his duties just like a good and faithful servant should, inspiring life vim and love into his work, and it is no wonder success and enjoyment and profit came to all who attended.

Religious services consumed the first part of the program, after which short addresses, discussions, song and music followed by volunteers and notified men and women and children.

It was an afternoon of profit and true pleasure, and but gave another thread to the already large cord of religion which these good workers in Brown county possess. The able, sweet and cultured choir interspersed the speaking with solos, duets and quartets, which were truly charming under direction of the Messrs. Ellis. They sang, and the training and ability which were shown bespeak qualifications of which Aberdeen should be proud. A quartette of voices of ladies and gentlemen sang like the vested choirs of some high church, so sweetly, so entrancingly did they interpret the chant.

Surely much good is bound to come to every heart there present and the King's name glorified as well as His cause helped.

S. A. PIPER.

Death of This Well Known and Substantial Citizen Saturday.

Mr. Samuel Alexander Piper, aged 69 years, died at his beautiful home in the Sixth Ward Saturday afternoon, after a prolonged illness of diabetes.

Mr. Piper has been a sufferer of kidney troubles for some time, and about a year ago he was compelled to retire from his active business life, his troubles finally culminating in the disease which terminated fatally.

He was born in Nicholas county, where he spent about half his life, removing from there to this county, where, with a few years residence in Bourbon county, he has spent the remaining half, and where he accumulated a vast estate, he being worth some $30,000.

Mr. Piper was a quiet, unassuming gentleman, a man well liked by all who had any dealings with him, and he will be missed by the business fraternity of this city and county.

He was the only remaining founder of the Wells & Mitchell Bank, now the First National Bank, and was its President at the time of his death, having filled that responsible position for the past seven years.

He leaves a wife, who was Miss Fitzgerald, two daughters, Mrs. S. A. Shanklin of this city and Mrs. P. P. Parker of near Mayfield, four brothers, Messrs. W. L. and Joseph of Nicholas county, John J. and Z. T. of Bourbon county, and two sisters, Mrs. Dr. Reynolds and Mrs. Hatie Caldwell of Nicholas county, together with numerous other relatives, to mourn his taking off.

The funeral occurred this morning at 11 o'clock at the residence, the services being conducted by Rev. Henry M. Soudier, Pastor of the Carlisle Presbyterian Church, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Mayville Cemetery.

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

A special from Frankfort to The Louisville Times says Colonel Albert E. Boone, the noted railway projector, who, with Knox county, Tenn., behind him, has for several years been projecting the Tidewater System of Railways between Columbus, O., through Kentucky and Tennessee to the Atlantic Southern seaboard, is in that city preparing to file a charter for that road or part of the system that will pass through Kentucky.

The charter will provide that the road run from Dover, near Mayville, through Cynthiana, Georgetown, Frankfort and Jellico.

Colonel Boone says that several corps of surveyors will be in the field between Columbus, O., and Jellico, Tenn., inside of three weeks.

The work taken up by him several years ago was really the first railroad ever projected West of the Allegheny Mountains.

Colonel Boone's father was Daniel Boone, not of Kentucky, but of Virginia, and was a near relative of the Kentuckian to whom the present Colonel Boone bears a striking resemblance.
